Shelby News

Mr. and Mrs. Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Bullocks and Mr. Rush motored to Memphis, Sunday. Mr. Rush visited his father, who is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Ware visited relatives and friends and Mrs. Bullocks spent the day with relatives, the Castors, formerly of Shelby.

The pride of Shelby Tabernacle celebrated the 12th by selling barbecued chicken and ice cream, which proved to be quite a success.

Mrs. Nancy Johnson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McWayne and visited their church. She reported wonderful service. They are members of Pleasant Green, in Mound Bayou.

Sunday Service was spiritually high at St. Andrew the Pastor, Rev. J. L. Joiner, preached a soul stirring sermon at 11 A. M., and Communion was issued that night.

The Bolivar County Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress was largely attended by the following Shelveans; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Marshall, Messrs. Earnest Gregory and James Wesley, Mesdames F. L. Wilson and Mrs. M. V. Brooks Little L. M. Jones. Our stand by Rev. Wm. Lee and Mrs. Girdie L. Bullocks.

The Wings Over The Delta Chorus rendered special music for the Congress Thursday night, and everybody seemed to have enjoyed it.

Powell Bros. Funeral Homes

Mound Bayou, Miss.

Chicago, Ill

... Of course, you are no expense to anyone while you live; but suppose you die?

Are your relatives financially able to decently bury you without going into debt for your funeral?

Ben Franklin said: "Work as if you hoped to live always; but live as if you expected to die tomorrow."

There is no happier way to face the end, than by knowing that you will not be a burden on anyone when or if you should die.
